

Job Announcement Environmental Reporter

This is a part-time – 12-month time-limited position.

Georgia Public Broadcasting (GPB) is hiring an experienced reporter to cover the environment, climate, and agricultural resources of Coastal and South Georgia and to report on the impact of the changing planet on the people, places and environments of the region. This position is based in Savannah and will have significant editorial and creative autonomy while operating under GPB's editorial standards and review process. The reporter will be expected to attend daily news meetings, pitch stories and participate in edit sessions with editorial supervisors while working an average of approximately 20 hours per week. They will be expected to file for GPB News across radio, digital and social media. This position will report to GPB's News Director. GPB is a statewide dual licensee comprised of 9 PBS television stations and 22 NPR radio stations that broadcast across the state of Georgia.

Candidate Responsibilities:

- Research and pitch story ideas and establish contacts within assigned region and beat
- Participate in daily planning meeting and attend other staff meetings as required
- Write, edit and produce stories for radio, digital and social media
- Manage and communicate schedule to management and meet deadlines as assigned
- Record audio interviews and sound, track voice over scripts and edit within Adobe audition or other audio editing software
- Take photos or capture video with cellphone or other visual production equipment as needed
- Write and file digital stories within the GPB content management system
- Work with the social media team on content for GPB News' social media platforms
- Participate in feedback sessions on work product with editors and managers
- Manage the GPB workspace and studio in Savannah and facilitate interviews there as needed
- Perform additional or related duties as assigned or required

Candidate Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in journalism, Communications or related field or equivalent education, training, and experience which provides the requisite knowledge, skills, and abilities for this job
- Minimum of two years reporting and writing experience for a news organization
- Experience covering climate and environmental issues strongly preferred
- Experience in Public Media a plus
- Ability to produce informative and engaging stories across GPB's digital, audio and social media platforms under deadline
- Experience with audio editing software such as Adobe Audition
- Experience with photography and video production a plus
- Able to write clearly and effectively using AP style
- Ability to develop a network of sources and contacts and establish working relationships with them
- Ability to remain current on issues impacting Georgia's climate and environment
- Ability to work collaboratively with other reporters and editors
- Ability to work independently with limited daily oversight
- Strong editorial judgment and experience producing content for clearly defined audiences.
- Access to a motor vehicle and possession of a valid driver's license to cover stories across the region

To Apply: Upload your resume, references, and applicant form to the GPB Job Center at www.gpb.org/jobs.
ONLY Applications submitted through the GPB Job Center WILL BE ACCEPTED.

This is a time-limited part-time, 12-month position. No Benefits.

Hourly Rate: $50.00 - Average 20 hours per week

Deadline to Apply: Open Until Filled

Georgia Public Broadcasting is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

DATE POSTED: 02-25-2026

RECRUITMENT NUMBER: C-5- 2026