

Internship Opportunity

We are looking for Interns for SUMMER 2026 For Client & Studio Production Services.

Georgia Public Broadcasting (GPB) is a network of twenty-one radio stations and nine television stations. GPB believes strongly in the value of education. We strive to apply classroom theory to practical work experience. This internship opportunity will allow students to experience firsthand the reality of working in the broadcast production industry. Interns can test their creative talent, exercise their analytical skills and increase their understanding of broadcasting operations and trends.

The Intern will:

- Will gain first-hand knowledge of various production elements
- Assist with field shoots and in-house productions
- Assist with studio set-up and editing sessions
- Shadow stage & technical managers
- Assist with audio and teleprompter operating
- Conduct data-based research
- Use Adobe Creative Cloud to edit and create documents and/or videos
- Assist marketing with organizing events
- Book crews and provide administrative support

To Apply: Please upload a concise cover letter; a one-page resume that lists your related experience, current year in school, major/minors and coursework related to this internship opportunity; and a list of three references to the “Internship External Affairs Section” at www.gpb.org/jobs . Note: Submission of work samples is optional.

This is an unpaid internship opportunity for Summer 2026.

Timeframe: June 1, 2026 to July 31, 2026

We will work with interns and their school schedule and session requirements.

Deadline to Apply: April 3, 2026

DATE POSTED: March 13, 2026
